Yours of the 9th instant was duly received. Should have answered long ago, had I not expected from day to day to start - for your City - but business has prevented my coming until the present time.
Should I not find it convenient to leave home during the coming week - or even the week following will write you - and perhaps send ~~some~~ coins for examination W.W. Thurston Yours to hand, regarding the Higley paper or the price of my Sale of Sept-10th 1880

I cannot just tell where I did buy it - but my impression is that it came in rather a "job lot" from a boy or young man, in I believe the year 1877 it was not considered original - only a struck copy. and sold for little or nothing. I don't know the purchaser now.

I am interested in coins but are not now buying any - any varieties fractional currency that I haven't already in stock - I would like to purchase.
